SEPTEMBER 2025

Hoping you can join us for our free Community Fun Day.

*Details of our Autumn programme can be found inside.
Be assured of a warm welcome.*

Dear Friends

It's hard to believe that as this month's magazine goes to print, schools will have reopened and the summer holidays will have drawn to a close.

In parish life we look forward to organisations and activities reopening after the summer break. We are so grateful to all our marvellous volunteers who help to lead and coordinate all these activities that mean so much in the life of our community.

This year on the weekend closest to our Foundation Day, we hope to fling open the gates and welcome our friends and neighbours and the local community to come and visit us. Why not invite a friend or neighbour to come and share in our community fun day on Saturday 6th September? We look forward to hosting an exciting free event where there will be something for everyone. There will be a petting zoo and pony rides, there will be bouncy castles and face painting. There will be hot dogs, ice cream and games. There will be the chance to visit and explore our beautiful church with a windows' quiz. There will be tea, coffee and refreshments and our organisations will be on hand to give people information about activities that they might like to come and experience for themselves. On the Sunday morning of that weekend, we look forward to a special speaker coming to share his experience of finding new hope and faith through participating in a course to explore the claims of Christianity called the Alpha course. We hope to be running one of these courses beginning on Wednesday 10th September, St. Finnian's Day and there will be information available if you would like to come and give it a try for yourself or come with a friend. From 1st - 7th September, we hope to partner with other churches in our area Deanery to participate in a global week of prayer for our world. All the nations have been invited to get people praying for the many situations of need around the world and we would like to be part of this initiative. Maybe you would like to sign up to pray for some hours during that week and you can pray either in the prayer room in the church hall or in your own home as we intercede and pray for local and global situations along with people from every nation on the planet.

We want to wish parishioners well who are embarking on new things. Some will be starting school for the first time or changing schools or heading away to university or 3rd level education. Others will be starting new jobs or perhaps starting a new season of retirement. All of these things can bring their own stresses and challenges as well as exciting new possibilities and we want people to know that the church is here for you.

As a new season begins in parish life, we get excited at the possibilities that brings for people to discover peace and new life as they connect with the spiritual part of their lives. If we can encourage or guide in those things, we would love to do so.

Please come and share in our community fun day or come along to church services either in person or online. Connect into some of the activities on offer and we hope that you will be richly blessed in doing so.

With every good wish.

Yours sincerely
Jonathan Pierce (Rector)

THANK YOU FROM THE CHOIR OF WADHAM COLLEGE, OXFORD

On behalf of the whole choir, I wanted to extend our heartfelt thanks for hosting us in July. We are truly grateful for all the support St. Finnian's gave in making the concert possible and for the incredibly warm welcome we received.

It was especially meaningful to perform in a place that holds such significance for one of our own and hugely touching to see the community come together in such strong support of Eva and our choir. The warmth and attentiveness of the audience made the experience all the more special for us and we are incredibly grateful for the extremely generous donations given by so many. The thoughtful hospitality, especially the wonderful tea and refreshments kindly provided by Eva's parents, was also very much appreciated.

Our visit to St. Finnians' was, without a doubt, one of the highlights of our tour and a memory we will all treasure.

Thank you again for everything.

Hannah Zaki, Director of Music

Summer is behind us and autumn is in the air, there is the sense of getting back to school, university and all our church activities will soon be in full swing. I was thinking about the unrest in the UK, including in our own province, over migration issues in the last few months. People have concerns for the safety of their young people and communities generally so I wondered what the right way of things were on the ground ? Surely violence and racism aren't the answer. Coming home from the beautiful north coast recently on the A26 I saw on a church noticeboard a sign which read "I was a stranger and you invited me in" (Matthew 25:35) As you know, we are due to visit the Livingston Centre in Killinchy on Saturday 20th September. The Livingston family, descendants of the Rev. John Livingston who served as minister in Killinchy from 1630-1636, made their way to the New World of North America and made a considerable impact there. A few years ago, I went for the first time to the Ulster American Folk Park near Omagh. I remember stepping onto the replica ship and being told of the harsh unsafe conditions on board. The idea was that you exited the vessel on the other side and were shown around what was supposed to be the land of North America and the type of dwellings there. So it has never been easy being a migrant in any era. As well as the verse above spoken by Jesus, there are many verses in scripture along the same lines. "And you are to love those who are foreigners; for you yourselves were foreigners in Egypt." Deuteronomy 10:19 Hopefully our trip to the centre will give us food for thought about the many hardships endured by generations seeking a better life through hard work and perseverance and continues to the present day. If you haven't yet indicated and you wish to go on this outing, please phone or text me or Liz Walker (Cost £20). We also look forward to the new season of MU meetings starting on Thursday 2nd October in the Huston Hall at 7:30pm - Baby Photos: Who Are They? Chat and Supper. We hope to welcome you there.

MOTHERS' UNION MIDDAY PRAYERS - SEPTEMBER THEME – THE POWER OF RECONCILIATION

Reflection for 'The Power of Reconciliation'

Sometimes it seems that our troubled world is immersed in the pain and suffering of conflict and broken relationships, yet Jesus reminds us that even though we are all less than perfect, every one of us is worthy of being redeemed, loved, and forgiven. As members of Mothers' Union, there is hope and a desire to continue building a future of reconciliation, justice and peace in partnership with The Community of The Cross of Nails. "Being a part of the Community of the Cross of Nails affirms who we are at our core - a movement of men and women contributing to peace and reconciliation at all levels, from the fellowship of friendship over a cup of tea to conflict zones, Mothers' Union members embody the spirit of what the Cross of Nails is all about."

(Lynne Tembey, former Worldwide President)

MONDAY - FORGIVENESS

Heavenly Father, help us first to recognise our own failings and neglect to 'forgive and forget', in order that unburdened, we may work towards a future free of resentment or animosity. We pray that in our healing we may be transformed and reconciled with you. Amen.

Litany of Reconciliation

All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God.

The hatred which divides nation from nation, race from race, class from class, Father forgive.

The covetous desires of people and nations to possess what is not their own, Father, forgive.

The greed which exploits the work of human hands and lays waste the earth, Father, forgive.

Our envy of the welfare and happiness of others, Father, forgive.

Our indifference to the plight of the imprisoned, the homeless, the refugee, Father, forgive.

The lust which dishonours the bodies of men, women, and children, Father, forgive.

The pride which leads us to trust in ourselves and not in God, Father, forgive.

Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

TUESDAY – REDEMPTION

Risen Lord Jesus, we come to you prayerfully, not because we have to, because we want to.

You came into our world to redeem us by your death and glorious resurrection. Each day may we remember what we are ashamed of and turn to you for forgiveness.

Change us, dear Lord, that we may remember what we are ashamed of and turn to you for forgiveness.

Change us dear Lord, may we be lights in the darkness and may we encourage and welcome people to enter our wondrous worldwide fellowship of Mothers' Union, loving both God and neighbour. Amen.

WEDNESDAY – EMPOWERMENT

Hebrews 12:14. Make every effort to live in peace with everyone and be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord. Loving Lord, help us to remember that we are all created in your image. Empower us to look for you in all others and especially in those that are different from us. Aiming to love our neighbour, help us to learn to live with the differences and to celebrate and cherish our diversity. Amen.

THURSDAY – HOPEFULNESS

Psalms 33:22. May your unfailing love be with us, Lord, even as we put our hope in you. Loving Lord, we thank you for your love for each one of us and the hope that we have in you. As we seek to share that love and that hope in our own communities, we pray that others will be drawn to you and the transforming power of your love. Amen.

FRIDAY – RECONCILIATION

O Lord, you have searched me out and known me; you discern my thoughts from afar. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, so high that I cannot attain it. (Psalm 139) But I know that you have reconciled us through the cross of our Lord Jesus which has restored our broken relationship and brought justice and peace into our lives. Amen.

SATURDAY – JUSTICE AND PEACE

Amos 5:24. But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never failing stream! Compassionate God, be with us all as we hold out hands of blessing to our Mothers' Union family wherever they may be, and hands of reconciliation and peace to those in need whatever their circumstances. Amen.

FINAL BLESSING PRAYER

Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another as God forgave you and may God's blessing be with you as you journey on in faith and trust. Amen.

On Thursday 26th June, a few members of the Mothers' Union and friends gathered for afternoon tea to celebrate Nell Moncrieff's upcoming 103rd birthday. The Rector presented Nell with a medal from the President of Ireland Michael D. Higgins. This is given to those who were born before the partition of Ireland in 1922. Other gifts were also presented to Nell from the Diocesan MU by the President Mrs Linda Thompson and the Indoor Members' rep, Mrs Sally McCurry. Our own Branch presented Nell with a beautiful lap blanket crocheted by a former member, Anna Lemon. A lovely afternoon was had by all.

THANK YOU FROM NELL

I would like to thank all the ladies associated with the Mothers' Union that both organised and attended my 103rd birthday luncheon in St. Finnian's church hall on Thursday 26th June. I really enjoyed exchanging very memorable stories with all those present.

I would also like to thank the Rector for presenting me with the Commemoration Medal from the President of the Irish Republic and reading out his accompanying letter.

I have been associated with the Mothers' Union in St. Finnian's for many enjoyable years and have wonderful memories of this time. This luncheon brought back so many of these memories.

I would also like to thank everyone for their kind gifts and cards which I will cherish.

Love and God Bless.

Nell Moncrieff

CHURCH FINANCES

The Select Vestry would like to thank all who give financially to support St. Finnian's Parish Church. We are very grateful for all the financial support received.

Financial Support to the Parish

If you have any queries about your FWO contributions, weekly envelopes, setting up a Standing Order or Gift Aiding, please do not hesitate to speak to Brian Lavery, the Parish Treasurer. Brian can be contacted by email at stfinnianstreasurer@btinternet.com or via the church office 02890 792793.

For anyone wishing to make an electronic donation to the church, the bank account details are as follows:

Bank Name: Danske

Account Name: St Finnian's Parish Church

Bank Account Number: 11089757

Bank Sort Code: 95-01-34

Please include your name and, if known, your FWO number when setting up a standing order or making an electronic donation to the church bank account above. If you could also let the Parish Treasurer know by email or telephone, that would be great.

Changes to Parish Expenses Policy

In June, as part of the overall review of Diocesan policies, the Select Vestry revised the Expenses Policy for St. Finnian's. Expenses should now be claimed using the Parish Expense Claim Form - available from the Treasurer & Linda Campbell in the church office and submitted along with receipts to the Treasurer before reimbursement takes place. All expense claims will now be repaid by electronic transfer directly into a bank account and cheques for expenses will no longer be issued. Prior approval in principle is required for expense claims above £250.

The above relates to expense claims made direct to the Parish Treasurer. Individual Parish organisations who manage their own funds will have their own policies for reimbursement.

LADIES' FRIENDSHIP GROUP

- PROVERBS 27:9

Hello Ladies,

Helen, Caroline, Dorothy and I hope that the summer break has left you refreshed and possibly a little suntanned.

Our opening meeting in September is on Wednesday 10th at the usual time of 2.00 pm. It will be an opportunity to meet our curate, Ryan Hawk, informally, followed by afternoon tea and a general chat and catchup.

“Every little helps” is the Tesco representative's topic on Wednesday 24th. This will be an interesting insight into a retail business where many of us spend our money.

We look forward to seeing you again and would encourage you to bring a friend to enjoy the camaraderie of the group.

Julie

Mobile no: 07814928398

JACK MCMILLAN

Our former BB member, Jack McMillan has won a gold medal at the 2025 World Aquatics Championships in Singapore. Jack won gold as part of the Men's 4 x 200 metres freestyle relay team. You may remember that Jack also won a gold medal at the 2024 Olympic Games in Paris.

Well done Jack on your second gold medal within a year - a great achievement!

GENERAL MAINTENANCE

The church premises require regular maintenance to keep them in good order, so it is an advantage to have a regular schedule for works both for buildings and grounds. This gives people an opportunity to volunteer a few hours each month to assist in the upkeep of our estate. Accordingly, the last Saturday of each month is designated as a work morning, duration from 9am to 11am for anyone who might be available. Work would include general light duties, tidying up in the halls and church and optional pruning, spraying, brushing etc. The next date is Saturday 27th September.

See you then!

Jim Haughey, Glebewarden

Hello everyone

Hoping that you enjoyed the lovely spell of sunshine that August brought to us. This wee country of ours is even more beautiful when we have a sprinkling of fine weather.

We are in a little bit of a quandary for our next Messy Church date. Most of our group are on holidays or have other commitments mid/late September and, to this end, there is no finalised date right now.

Can we ask everyone to keep an eye out on Facebook, Sunday announcements and of course the big giveaway - our Messy Church banner. We will post the next date as soon as possible. Keep well and God Bless.

ST. FINNIAN'S HISTORY PROJECT 1932-2032

To celebrate 100 years of St. Finnian's we would like to collect your stories of the people, events and changes in the parish to publish in future church magazines. Do you have: -

- Photographs from over the years
- Old church magazines
- Any material for display purposes
- Information about church organisations
- Anything else that may be relevant

We are interested in your memories, particularly from older members of the congregation and people who have belonged to the parish since childhood. If you would like to write a paragraph or two of around 250-300 words, you can post this to Linda Campbell at the church office or email your story to stfinnians100years@outlook.com

We would be grateful if any contributions could be submitted in Word Document format for ease of editing.

If you are aware of anyone who may need help writing their memories, we would be grateful for any assistance from friends and family. If you would like to become involved in the planning and gathering of material for this project then please email stfinnians100years@outlook.com or contact Linda with your name and details.

Thanks to Ralph McMurray and Stephen Leckey for providing the eighth article in this history series sharing their memories of St. Finnian's Men's Society.

ST. FINNIAN'S HISTORY

RALPH MCMURRAY & STEPHEN LECKEY MEN'S SOCIETY

In October 1982, on the 50th anniversary of the establishment of St. Finnian's, it was decided to form a branch of the Men's Society, an organisation designed to promote fellowship and support among the men of the parish. An inaugural team of Bill Christie, Chairman, Bill Ruddock, Secretary and Derek Catney, Treasurer led the way in what was to become a new venture for the parish. Forty-five men joined in that first year, rising to some fifty-five in subsequent times.

Meetings were held monthly, initially from September to May, with speakers invited to talk on a range of topics. No subject was out of bounds and speakers consisted of sportspeople, men and women of the cloth, Secretaries of State and other local politicians, Chief Constables, writers and other prominent figures in the community. St Finnian's Men's Society quickly gained a reputation for attracting speakers of the highest quality in their chosen fields. On some occasions, the Mothers' Union and other Men's Societies were invited to attend. The then First Minister, Arlene Foster paid a visit, the historian Eamon Phoenix was a particular favourite, Lord Robin Eames spoke on more than one occasion as did Dame Mary Peters and the well-known writer, Paul Clements. On the occasion of the talk by the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Ireland, the Most Revd. Eamon Martin, the neighbouring parishioners of St. Bernadette's were invited to attend, resulting in a hall bursting at the seams! For many years, Men's Society member Dr Roddy Evans drafted reports of each meeting for the parish magazine, a role that was subsequently embraced by Garth Corbett in more recent times. In addition to the monthly meetings, an Annual General Meeting including a meal was held in May at a different venue each year, notably on one occasion on HMS Caroline.

An annual outing was arranged in conjunction with other branches of the Men's Society, one year consisting of a visit to the then President of Ireland, Mary Robinson, at her official residence in Phoenix Park. In addition, a yearly service was held for members and their guests, hosted in turn by one of the Men's Society branches.

For this history project we are inviting you to submit any memories you have of the Men's Society to include in later articles. Perhaps there was a speaker whom you found particularly stimulating, an outing which held vivid memories or anything else that sticks in your mind or created an impression.

Please contact Linda in the church office by email on stfinnians100years@outlook.com or by phone. We will use your memories to combine with others in order to provide an impression of what the Men's Society meant to St. Finnian's.

Core strength vs six pack

Summer is over and Pilates is back up and running at St. Finnian's and I thought it might be interesting to share something I came across in a recent podcast which discussed the subject of Core Strength and asked the question 'is it more than having a six pack?'. I'm sure we've all seen the Hollywood action heroes with their sculpted abdominals and wondered if that is the ideal we should all aim for and if a six pack is actually the best representation of core fitness.

Thankfully the answer is a resounding no! In reality there are a number of factors that will determine whether you can even develop the abdominals to that degree anyway, including lifestyle, genetics, sleep and nutrition and it very much depends whether you are focussing on aesthetics rather than fitness and functionality. In the case of our Hollywood hero, the look is 'fit for purpose' for screen time but may not enable them to carry out other activities requiring the core muscles to work at optimal function and avoid damage/injury. At this point it's worth revisiting what we mean by the 'core' - it is a cylinder of internal and external muscles between the ribs and pelvis that work in a coordinated manner to optimise movement and protect the spine. This is different to the focus on a single muscle in order to obtain the 'look', although depending on the exercise regime undertaken, there could be some benefit to the other core muscles. However, the aim of Pilates is to specifically target all the muscles in the core, starting from a comfortable level and progressively increasing the workload to build capacity (strength and functionality) within those muscles and to allow them to work in a balanced coordinated way. Together with general activity and other types of exercise such as swimming and gym-based classes, this will contribute to a better 'healthspan' (the number of years enjoying good health) rather than just an increased lifespan. As ever, I hope this has provided some food for thought about how and why you exercise and, until next time, stay safe and keep moving.

We meet on Wednesdays at 7pm in the Huston Hall.

Everyone is welcome and a small donation of £3 per class is requested for church funds. If you want to find out more about Pilates, please contact me -

John Waterworth by phone (+447941368546) or email at jcwworth@yahoo.co.uk
